

Report for the month of February under Programmes to be organised to commemorate the 70th Anniversary of Adoption of Constitution of India

As per GOI/ICAR directions an awareness campaign focused on Citizen Duties including fundamental duties as enshrined in the Indian Constitution is to be conducted from 26th Nov., 2019 to 26th Nov., 2020, throughout the year. In this connection, a talk on “Constitution and citizen duties, Land legislation and Reform” was delivered on 28.02.2020 at 11.00 am in the Conference Hall of CPRI, in which more than 70 officials representing scientific/technical/administrative/supporting staff of the institute participated.

The talk was delivered by Sh. Sandeep Singh Dudi, Administrative Officer, ICAR-CPRI, Shimla. He thoroughly elaborated various parts of constitution, how the Indian constitution took shape, its contents and the importance of fundamental rights & duties of the citizens of India. He also emphasised upon the act related to Land legislation and the reforms that has taken place in the constitution. The talk was interactive and the listeners also participated enthusiastically. A number of questions were asked and were answered. It was a long talk and proved to be very interesting and fruitful.

The session concluded with a vote of thanks.

The glimpses of the talk are as under:

