As per GOI/ICAR directions an awareness campaign focused on Citizen Duties including fundamental duties as enshrined in the Indian Constitution was to be conducted from 26\textsuperscript{th} Nov., 2019 to 26\textsuperscript{th} Nov., 2020, throughout the year. In this connection, ICAR-CPRI Shimla and its regional stations at Jalandhar and Patna had organised various talks/seminars by inviting eminent personalities and an awareness campaign regarding Fundamental Rights, Fundamental Duties and other aspects of the Constitution of India.

In this regard, closing ceremony of year long celebration of Constitution Day was organised through virtual mode by the Institute. All staff members joined Hon’ble President of India through Government of India portal in reading the Preamble of the Constitution at 11:00 AM.

Dr Manoj Kumar, Acting Director, ICAR-CPRI briefly explained the importance of Constitution Day and then invited Dr. Girjesh Shukla, Dean, HPNLU, Shimla for delivering a talk on “Fundamental Duties & Constitution of India”. Dr Shukla presented his talk to all staff members of ICAR-CPRI Shimla and its regional stations through virtual mode. He described thoroughly the significance of the Constitution, Preamble and Fundamental Duties of the citizens. The online lecture was very interesting and fruitful.

The session concluded with a vote of thanks by Dr NK Pandey, Head, Division of Social Science.

Glimpses of the Concluding Ceremony