

Kufri (MP/4-578)

- A new medium maturing potato variety for French fries.
- Produces attractive white cream oblong tubers with shallow eyes and white flesh.
- Possess acceptable tuber dry matter (20%) and low reducing sugars (<150 mg/100 g of fresh weight of potato).
- Acceptable French fry colour (3.3) with excellent taste.
- Yield potential 30-35 t/ha with more than 80% processing grade tubers.
- Produces 8-10 medium to large sized attractive tubers.
- Tubers don't show deformities like cracking or hollow heart.
- Field resistant to late blight.
- Long tuber dormancy, very good keeping quality and can provide raw material for longer period.
- Suitable for cultivation in North West and Central plains and similar agro-ecologies.
- Provides profitable business opportunities in domestic and international market.

Kufri Neelkanth

- First ever purple colour specialty potato variety of India.
- Attractive purple ovoid tubers, shallow eyes and yellow flesh.
- Possess higher antioxidants (anthocyanin and carotenoids) as compared to other red skin varieties.
- Excellent organoleptic qualities with mealy texture.
- Yield potential 35-38 t/ha.
- Produces 8-10 medium sized attractive tubers.
- Tubers don't show deformities like cracking or hollow heart.
- Field resistant to late blight.
- Possesses 18% tuber dry matter with very good keeping quality
- Suitable for cultivation in North Indian plains and similar agro-ecologies.
- Provides profitable business opportunities in domestic and international market.